

Advising: Pre-Registration Course Planning Guide, updated June 2011 by Prof. Jack Dougherty and FY Mentors
 Use Trinity Portal (<http://my.trincoll.edu>) to search Course Schedules online. List preferred courses in order of preference.

A) What are 2-3 possible majors (or "ways of thinking" in the liberal arts) that you wish to explore?

B) Which courses would be most appropriate for the areas of study listed above?

4-digit #	Dept/Course ID	Title	Credit	Instructor	Day/Time	Permission?	Distrib areas

C) Which general education requirements do you plan to fulfill next semester? List the most appropriate courses.

4-digit #	Dept/Course ID	Title	Credit	Instructor	Day/Time	Permission?	Distrib areas

D) What other courses interest you, and why?

E) Organize your preferred courses (and alternate choices) on the Course Planner grid to avoid scheduling conflicts.
 Some courses offer multiple sections at different times (marked as -01, -02, etc.). Some courses also require enrollment in lab sections.
