

PROGRAM FOR 1997 - 1998 NORTH AMERICAN MEETING OF
THE
INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY FOR ECOLOGICAL PSYCHOLOGY

May 30, 1998
Life Sciences Auditorium
Trinity College
Hartford, CT USA

SATURDAY MAY 30, 1998

8:45 a.m. -- REGISTRATION

Informal gathering; coffee Come put your posters in Room 134, down the hall from the lobby and auditorium.

9:20 a.m. -- Welcome and introduction to the meeting

9:30 a.m. -- 10:15 a.m.

How to bridge the gap between affordances and conventional uses of objects:
Longitudinal infant studies

Cintia Rodriguez and Seth Sorgan, Clark University

10:15 -- 10:45 a.m. -- BREAK

10:45 - 11:30 a.m.

Open discussion of the role and future direction of developmental studies in ecological psychology

11:30 -- 1:30 Poster viewing and LUNCH -- catered on site

1:30 -- 2:00 p.m.

Lower Extremity Coordination of Walking and Running within the Gait Transition Region

Li Li and Richard van Emmerik, University of Massachusetts

2:00 -- 2:30 A comparative analysis of visually induced motion sickness

L. James Smart, Jr., University of Cincinnati

2:30 -- 3:00 DISCUSSION

3:00 -- 3:30 BREAK

3:30 -- 4:15

Because of illness and subsequent surgery, Robert Shaw will NOT be here to give the previously described talk. Instead of extending the locomotion topic in Shaw's direction, BILL WARREN of Brown University will pick up the thread and give the last presentation.

4:15 -- 5:00 DISCUSSION

5:00 -- 6:30 -- Poster Viewing

7:00 p.m. Group Dinner at the Keg, 99 Sisson Ave. Hartford
